

Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its local TV affiliates to air an anti-Kerry documentary called "Stolen Honor." It's an obvious attempt to influence the election and is nothing more than an illegal campaign contribution. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
